WEDDINGS

Say ‘I do’ at your place in the country

As your guests sweep down the tree-lined driveway to our Arts and Crafts manor house, the scene is set for the wedding celebration you’ve been dreaming about.

Hidden away in rolling Buckinghamshire countryside, Horwood House is bursting with period character with its grand staircase, spectacular chandeliers, lead light windows and intricate stonework. Along with the perfectly manicured lawns and tranquil lily pond, the house makes the perfect backdrop for those photos you will cherish forever.

After having recently undergone a top-to-toe refurbishment, the hotel now oozes country chic at its stylish and welcoming best.

Horwood House has over a centuries worth of memories – join us and add yours to our story.

Legendary gardener, Percy Thrower, was born here – his horticultural influence is everywhere from the artwork to the ornamental gardens.

IN THE GROUNDS

Stroll past our tranquil lily pond and through the Secret Garden gate and you will discover our Blossom Garden.

Licensed for weddings, this charming and romantic spot with magnificent views back to the house will delight your guests, and thanks to its endless photo opportunities, your photographer too.

You can also choose a less traditional setting such as the Manor House steps framed by elegant wisteria, the showstopping lily pond or under the boughs of the ancient oak tree.

Manor Drawing Room

IN THE HOUSE

The Drawing Room is a light and airy stage for the exchanging of vows with its high ceilings, grand stone fireplace and impressive bay window.

Neutral tones, subtly glistening wall coverings and botanical prints finish off this ethereal and romantic room.

Our Drawing Room leads directly to our Manor Bar and panelled seating area – ideal for reception drinks in the winter – with stone steps to the grounds making this an excellent choice too for weddings in the warmer months.

Our Eyre and Cook Suites are also licensed for larger numbers.

Drinks reception

After the ceremony, the celebrations ramp up with a glamorous drinks reception. Whether in the house or grounds, you can mingle with your guests, raise a toast and capture the moment with the most photogenic of backdrops.

Prosecco, cocktails, Champagne or gin bars can be set up and perfectly accompanied by our chef's homemade canapés, or you can suggest favourites of your own. We also have plenty of space for outdoor games to keep the children amused or to lay on other entertainment.

For intimate winter drinks receptions don't forget the Manor Bar!

Wedding breakfast

(Your first meal as a married couple!)

Our Eyre and Cook Suites are wonderfully light and generous spaces for your wedding breakfast and they can be dressed to compliment your chosen style and palette.

Or for a more intimate occasion, you can choose the Drawing Room with its views across the grounds.

Knowing how important the food and drink will play in your celebrations, we offer a huge range of options and offer a complimentary tasting session so you can be sure you are 100% happy with your choices.

Local ingredients are a key feature, and we can recommend wine pairings to suit your meal. We also welcome your own ideas if you want to do something a little different, and will do our very best to make them happen.

Dancing the night away

From the romance of the first dance to kicking off your heels and boogying, we're here to make sure your evening reception is a legendary party for you and your loved ones.

The evening buffet is ideal for keeping your energy up for all that dancing! And with plenty of bedrooms to flop into when the music does stop, there is no need for anyone to rush off or miss out.
